CREATION FINALLY SCORES.

STAYS A MILE AND WINS IN A GAME EFFORT UNDER MILLER'S RIDING.

Ocean Queen Takes the Star Race of the Day-Lukeramus a Three-Year-Old-Arrivals from Santa Anita Park.

San Francisco, Cal., December 18.—Thomas H. Williams' exquisitely bred three-year-old. Creation. topped off an extra good day's racing by such a strenuously earned victory for horse and jockey that the big crowd present got up and yelled its approval noisily. Walter Miller's jockeyship was the chief contributor to his success.

The colors of Tim Sullivan were also carried to the front during the afternoon, Sarachesca proving successful in the third race. For some unknown reason the odds against the Bowery statesman's horse receded in the betting until at post time there was plenty of evens quoted without takers. Sarachesca went to the post in such a fashion that racegoers expected him to be beaten. They were agreeably disappointed when he set the pace throughout. The Viley Handicap, at seven furlongs, exclusively for two-year-olds, was the card's principal feature. The six good-class juveniles in it furnished spectacular and thrilling contention throughout. At the end Ocean Queen drew out and scored decisively. Bon Homme, despite his being palpably overweighted at 115 pounds, which involved an all-around concession of from ten to twenty-three pounds to the others, was favorite, though of the receding kind. Erbet, which finished a close third, displayed great improvement under the riding of a real jockey.

Reckstone, long overdue, was finally properly placed and won the fifth race without trouble. This horse has been "qualifying" for a very long time. This was his seventh start, though he had been scratched three times in the meantime. The layers took liberties with Rockstone at post time, but he won like a 1 to 10 chance.

Mechlin and Woolen accounted for the two remaining races. The running of the first, fourth, fifth and sixth races called for a revision of figures on the part of form bettors. These were monopolized by outsiders, only two public choices making good. Woolen and Saracinesca.

In a controversy regarding the correct age of Lukeramus, Dr. Saylor, the official veterinary, says that her sixth molar

MEXICAN RACING PLANS TAKING SHAPE.

New York, December 17.—Senor Terrazas and Matt Winn, together with several local men, have had several conferences regarding the Mexican racing profect. The plans have been perfected to an extent that Mr. Winn has been chosen to undertake the building and establishment of the tracks.

It is the intention to conduct the sport along the lines that are followed in France. The wagering will be done by the means of the pari-mutuel machines and a government breeding bureau will be established in connection with the sport. President Diaz is in hearty accord with the venture and the Mexican Jockey Club will be composed of the best sportsmen of that country and a number of English, French and American gentlemen, who are deeply interested in the welfare of racing.

It has been assured that this new jockey club will have the recognition of the English, French and Argentine clubs, and will model their work after these clubs, including the establishing of a stud book.

It is said that Matt Winn will soon leave for and Argentine clubs, and will model their work after these clubs, including the establishing of a studbook.

It is said that Matt Winn will soon leave for Mexico, so as to complete arrangements for the building of the tracks. It is the latention of the promoters of this venture to build a magnificent race course near the City of Mexico, one that will compare favorably with the best in this country. Several other large cities will be furnished with tracks and it is hoped that within a year a complete circuit will have been formed and racing inaugurated by the new Mexican Jockey Club.

News from Tampa, Florida, says that horses continue to arrive for the Tampa Bay track meeting which commences February 3, and prospects for a successful season are the brightest. There is some talk of enlarging the present track to a mile circuit, but this work will not be undertaken until after this coming meeting is over.

At a meeting of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association and various representatives of hunt clubs, the possibilities for the season of 1909 were considered and a committee of five was appointed to form plans whereby amateur racing can be best promoted and strengthened.

SANTA ANITA STANDARD HIGH.

Los Angeles. Cal., December 18.—Twenty days of the Santa Anita racing season have bassed into history and added much to the rank of the course as one of the leading racing plants in the world. In addition, the first twenty days of racing have been so clean and the horses have performed with such careful regard for form that it only is necessary during the remaining days of the meeting that the judges maintain the standard already set in order to fully justify every prediction made previous to opening day. The sport has been elevated to a high plane, one it never before attained on the coast, by the results of the season thus far, and Dr. J. S. Gardner, who directs the destinics of the racing association, and his associates are fully justified in their proud reference to the meeting as the greatest season of racing ever held west of the Mississippi. Horses of highest class have been running regularly, extremely fast time has been made and the sport has been most excellent. Judge Hamilton has been safecuarding the patrons of the sport in his usual alert and effective manner by curbing every appearance of any lack of form, by strictly enforcing the jockey club rules relating to rough riding and foul tactics and in various other ways, and under his direction the sport has been kept clean and he will have to show a form reversal if it is otherwise during the season.

AMERICAN ENTRIES IN ENGLISH STAKES.

The latest English racing calendar shows many American nominations to English stakes. For the Champion Stakes, 1,000 sovereigns, at one mile and a quarter, to be run October 12, 1909, August Belmont and James R. Keene have seven of the forty-two nominations. Mr. Belmont names Fair Play, Priseillian and Norman III., and Mr. Keene the Suburban winner, Ballot, the unbeaten Colin, Helmet, Esperanto and Wedding Bells. At the Craven meeting in 1910, in the fifty-first Blennial Stakes, of 1,000 sovereigns, Mr. Belmont has named Doncourt, and Mr. Keene the brown colt by Disguise—Biturica and the chestnut colt by Voter—Noonday. In the Midsummer Stakes, of 500 sovereigns, Mr. Belmont has Doncourt and Mr. Keene the black filly by Disguise—Swiftfoot and the black colt by Disguise—Emma C., while Harry Payne Whitney has nominated the chestnut colt by Broomstick—Sallie Navarre and the bay colt by Hamburg—Blue Girl and New Castle.

WARNER GRISWELL DISQUALIFIED.

Cuts Nattie Bumppo Off in the Stretch and Is Set Back-Shilling Fined.

Los Angeles, Cal., December 18.—The first disqualification of the meeting took place today when Warner Griswell was set back in the fifth race for fouling Nattle Bumppo when opposite the last sixteenth post. The latter was making his final effort when the interference occurred, but for which he would probably have secured second place. Judge Hamilton called jockey Shilling, who rode Warner Griswell, into the stand and, after a severe reprimand, fined him $200.

Phil Chinn broke his long stretch of ill-luck today when Lady Irma won an impressive victory in the second race, simply cantering from a fair band of fillies. Lady Irma was completely neglected in the betting.

fillies. Lady Irma was completely neglected in the betting.

St. Elmwood, that useful horse of R. F. Carman, scored another win today, beating the well-backed Kerry after the two had run as a team for six furgors. Heavy commissions on St. Elmwood just at post time reduced his price from 13 to 5 to 8 to 5. Apart from the disqualification the sport was somewhat featureless. The crowd was the largest Friday gathering of the present meeting, and betting was lively and heavy. Tomorrow is cut-in day and it is expected that twenty-five books will draw in.

ARRESTED MEN NOT ARRAIGNED.

New Orleans, La., December 18.—There was no arraignment of the principals in the test of the Locke law this morning as had been expected and the throng of sporting people, who jammed the criminal court room, were disappointed. This delay was occasioned by the attorneys for Lyles, Frigerio and Sheffield filing a demand with the court on the state's attorney for a bill of particulars. "There is a difference between a book and a slate," asserted Judge Richard B. Otero, of the law firm of Adams & Otero, when the case came up "and we demand to have a bill of particulars filed by the district attorney to know just what he means by charging that our clients operated a book," In this statement is believed to have been the key to the defense which has been planned by the attorneys for the track people. They propose pinning the state down to technicalities and to differentiate between bookmaking and slate writing. The defendants were represented by Judge Richard B. Otero, Lyonel Adams and Colonel E. Howard McCaleb. In lieu of this demand of the defense, the arraignment of Heaslin. Lyles, Frigerio and Sheffield went over until Monday. Meanwhile there is no doubt of a great shifting of scatiment in favor of a repeal of the drastic Locke Law, so that racing, in modified form and moder the jurisdiction of a commission, can be carried on. A monster petition is now being circulated among the commercial interests of the city, and it is said every merchant on Canal street, except one, has signed it, asking for a repeal of the anti-racing law. The prediction is freely made here now that the law will be modified at the next session of the legislature, which, however, does not meet until 1910. That business interests have suffered here is now admitted on all sides. The hotels, restaurants and boarding houses have especially felt the absence of the race track people who usually are in this city in December by the thousands.

S. F. Heaslip has not only resigned the presidency of the New Orleans Jockey Chb, but it was announced today New Orleans, La., December 18.—There was

FRED COOK'S MANY HORSES.

San Francisco, Cal., December 18.—Fred Cook contemplates cutting in shortly at Oakland and his presence in the ring will enliven matters, as he always makes a big book. Cook, in addition to booking and racing a formidable string, is also encounted in the breading of theoretics. always makes a big book. Cook, in addition to booking and racing a formidable string, is also engaged in the breeding of thoroughbreds, and has at his Mulberry Stock Farm in Illinois quite an extensive array of stallions and about a hundred broodmares. There are some formidable horses in the Cook stud, headed by English Lad, which, during his racing career, was one of the very best horses, if not the star, of the handican division at the Chicago and other western tracks. The other stallions are What-er-lou, a high-class race horse himself; John A. Morris, Benares and Great Bend, which also ranked well among the handican division when he was racing. The best known among Cook's big band of broodmares is Bessie Spahr, accounted the best filly out in the west in her two-year-old form, with the exception of Endurance by Right. She was beaten in her first start, but won her next three races. Cook paid 88,000 for her and was afterwards offered $15,000, but at the very outset of her three-year-old form she broke down and was retired to the stud. In addition to the eleven horses which he has here Cook will race a small string at Havana this winter, having sent five head to the Cuban metropolis, among them a yearling by Dick Welles—Bessie Spahr. The remainder of his racing stable has been turned out for the winter at his farm, but the string is not as extensive as it was a year ago, when the bookmaker-owner sent fifty-six horses into winter quarters.

AMERICAN TURFMEN AND CANADA.

Regarding racing in Canada next year the Buffalo Express has the following comment to make

Express has the following comment to make:

"Undoubtedly horsemen will not relish the idea of shorter meetings, with incident pilling up of express and other expense charges, but the Canadians believe they have the ball at their feet and propose to run things to suit themselves. They profess not to care if the small fry fall by the wayside, when they have every assurance that they will get the best racing material on the continent next year, and plenty of it, too. All the Canadian tracks are planning increased inducements for the horsemen, and while the sport has suffered through adverse legislation in many parts of the United States, there is every reason to believe that under the conservative management which now seems to be the watchword, it will flourish across the border as never before."

VERDICT AGAINST EDWARD CORRIGAN.

Louisville, Ky., December 18.—A verdict for $750 damages was returned by a jury in Judge Gordon's court in favor of the plaintiff in the case of Mary Hunter against Edward Corrigan, the turfman. The plaintiff was suing for $2,000 for the loss of the services of her son, whom she contended was an exercise boy in the defendant's employ. The defendant claimed that he had not employed the boy nor had any one in his service been authorized to engage him. It was averred that a stable hand had, without any authority from his employer, put the boy on the colt.

COLD VISITS SAN ANTONIO.

San Antonio, Tex., December 18 .- A sudden drop San Antonio, Tex., December 18.—A sudden drop, in temperature from midsummer to winter accounted for a decrease in the local attendance today despite this being ladies' day. A diversion from the program made it difficult to pick winners with precision and enabled the bookmakers to score their best inning of the meeting. An early morning rain lad little effect on the track, which remained good. The Bear again scored impressively from fair opponents over a longer distance than he was thought to fancy, and this was the main feature of the day's racing.

Winner—B. c. by Altamax—Recreation (trained by H. E. Rowell).

Went to post at 3:54. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving: second and third the same, treation; from a flying start, made the pace to the half and relinquished his advantage, but kept on in close pursuit afterwards and scored a lucky win in the last stride. Warden, excessively urged into the ead at the half, succumbed after a long stretch drive and much roughing by the winner. Sempronium ran inside forward pursuit in close quarters and was shut off when moving up on the far turn, then finished at the deepest going on the inside and was close up and very unlucky. Keep Moving ran forwardly throughed and is improving. Joe Rose, away badly, closed up steadily and was gaining in the stretch. Clamor, but of place in short races, held his own throughout. Legatee showed early speed, but tired and is short. Scratched—78715 Early Tide, 108.

Overweights—Creation, 2 pounds; Sempronium, 2.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Kohn, who was suspended last week for ough riding at El Paso, has been reinstated. The racing season at Kingston, Jamalca, opened Wednesday, December 16, and the American horses entered n the various races swept the card.

C. T. Boots, who formerly raced his horses under the name of the Elmwood Farm, is not actively in-terested in racing at present, but has a few good two-year-olds that he may campaign at Santa Anita Park after the first of the year.

J. Richards, the American jockey, who has been riding in Russia with considerable success, has arrived in New York and says he will take Herman Radtke's place with the stable of M. Lazaroff, who is the principal horse owner in Moscow.

George Hartley writes from Los Angeles that his nine-year-old chestnut gelding, George Vivian, by Bootmaker-Pearleie, died at New Orleans recently. The horse ran away while being exercised and sustained injuries of such a nature that he had to be destroyed.

It was said at the headquarters of the Jockey Club in the Windsor Areade that racing dates for next season would not be announced until some time after New Year's. It was intimated that the racing associations were inclined to wait until certain court cases have been decided.

Sam Hildreth is the only owner at Santa Anita who has an entry in every stake event of the season. With such an extensive establishment to eat up profits he has to win a few of these stakes to break even, and has made a good start by annexing one in the first three that have been run.

The valuable broodmare, Elf, bought by Mr. Dyment at the Lexington sales, proves to be not in foal. She will be sent next season to Missouri to be bred to Sain. Foals by Nasturtium and Cesarion and other good sires are due at the Barrie farm early in the year from other mares bought at the same sale.
